

SGL WEEKLY TEE

DID YOU KNOW?

A little trivia for you... everyone strives to shoot one under par one every hole, which is a birdie. Two under par is an eagle. Three under par is an albatross. But what if someone shoots four under par? It's about as rare as getting two hole-in-one's in the same round but it has happened. Keeping with the bird theme, a four under par is called a Condor, and there have been only five in PGA history. The most recent condor occurred in December 2020 by Kevin Pon who scored a 2 on a 667-yard par 6 at Lake Chabot Golf Course in Oakland, CA - one of the few courses in the country that has a par 6.

MATCH PLAY

Let's get ready to RUUUUMBLE!! Three rounds of heavyweight championship golf! Entries are now being taken for the 2022 Singles Match Play event. Our Special Event Chairman Dan Gallegos is in the process of collecting the first 32 players that sign up - only a few spots left!

The format will be the same as last year with high and low handicap divisions with the group drawings occurring Feb. 10. The first date of Match Play is this Saturday, Feb. 12 and will continue through March 19. Entry fee is $20 and guarantees everyone at least three matches in your group before moving to the finals bracket.

SUNDANCE RECAP – 2.5.2022

The recap at Sundance was - in a word - windy. It isn't often us desert dwellers get a chance to play in windy conditions, and it showed last Saturday at Sundance Golf Club in Buckeye, as 35 golfers teed it up to take on the wind. There were some highlights and awesome achievements despite the gusty golf day. Let's get to it!

Robert Owen wielded his clubs to post a 73 net, clearly taking Flight 1. George Banach swooped in with an 80 net score to take Flight 2. Juuuuune Vutrano was on her game with a 77 net to take Flight 3. Karen Stephens grabbed Flight 4 with an 81 net. And Mitch Steidl posted a 74 net to take the Callaway flight. Congrats to all the flight winners!

Congrats goes to Richard Gramolini who snatched the ONLY deuce of the day and pocketed $62 - nice!

Michael Broudy and Tom Hegna were atop the low putts leaderboard in a tie with 28 putts - very nice!

Brycen Marsolek, Michael Broudy, Scott Wentz and Stephen Park took home the CTPs earning $32 a piece. Stephen Park's CTP was on Hole #6 - remember that one surrounded by water? Show of hands... how many of us rolled off the back and blamed it on the wind?

Top money winner was Richard Gramolini with $94 - awesome!

Congrats to all winners at Sundance!

RINGERS UPDATE

The Ringers results can be found on the website for both Gross and Net standings but, after only two rounds, the cream is starting to rise. Will anyone overtake Dan Gallegos who is leading both lists for Flight #1? Bill Novak is leading both lists for flight #2. Jeff Coughran has Flight #3 in his back pocket, and Flight #4 has Martin Henner atop the gross leaderboard and Robert Cluff has the top net spot.

The remaining Ringers dates at San Marcos: 2/12, 3/12 and 4/2. The cost is $25 to enter, and you can still enter!

NEXT ON THE TEE

We head back to San Marcos Golf Resort in Chandler, Saturday, Feb. 12 for the third round of Ringers and the first round of Match Play - only a few spots remain open! This event has a Tee Time start of 9:30am and the cost of the round is $86 plus additional side games.
