

SGL WEEKLY TEE

By Amy Arnold

DID YOU KNOW?

Why are there 18 holes in a round of golf? Well, tradition mostly... but in 1764 during the planning of the golf club of St. Andrews, the first four holes were combined into two holes to produce a sum of 18 holes and the design has been maintained since.

SGL RULE OF THE WEEK

Tee Box Policy for the 2021 – 2022 Tournament Season:

- a) The tee box committee will pick a base tee for both male and female players for each event which will reflect a fair competition, fastest play and the most fun. These base tee box choices will be published along with the tournament schedule.
- b) A player may choose to play any rated tee for their gender. The World Handicap System formula will be applied to adjust handicap strokes for the chosen tee for the net flights portion of the competition.

c) There is a caveat to your tee selection. If you choose to play a tee forward of the base tee, you will forfeit your participation in side games (Gross Skins, Net Skins, Low Putts, Deuces, CTP's and Hole-in-Ones). You will still be eligible for net flights.

d) Seniors (age 65 and older) have the option to move up one set of rated tees from the base tee without forfeiting their participation in side games.

e) Qualifiers, regardless of age or gender, must play the base tee at minimum, but may choose to move back to a higher rated tee box.

f) It is imperative that you record which tees you played on your scorecard. Failure to do so will result in disqualification from the net flights portion of the event.

PALMBROOK RECAP - 3.19.2022

41 golfers made the trek west to Sun City to enjoy Palmbrook Country Club. What started a little cool warmed up to be a gorgeous day.

Amy Arnold posted a career best score of 72 gross and 66 net to take Flight #1 (insert bow here). Michael Broudy continued his great play and posted a 67 net to take Flight #2 - awesome! Adam Dizes also had a career day posting a 78 gross and 65 net to swipe Flight #3 - very nice! Rich Pilewicz blistered the course with a 68 net to take Flight #4 - sweetness! And your Callaway flight winner was Jeffery Bernardi with a 75 net. Congrats to all the flight winners!

Deuces dominate as five golfers circled a 2 on their scorecard that included Amy Arnold, Joe Galli, Joe Pilewicz, Jim Bieleniewicz and Dennis Lee. Pin seekers!

Michael Broudy only needed 29 putts on Saturday to earn $32 and the putting title. Nice job Michael!

The CTP markers were claimed by Joe Galli, Steve Hulka, Tom Hegna and Jim Bieleniewicz and were worth $34 each. Outstanding!

Top money winner was Amy Arnold with $61 - woo hoo!

Congrats to all winners at Palmbrook!

RINGERS UPDATE

GROSS: Dan Gallegos is hanging on to a narrow lead in Flight #1 with a 67 but three golfers are one stroke away - the pressure of it all! Dave Dean made his move and took the top spot in Flight #2 with a 70. Jim Dragon also took a giant leap last Saturday to sit atop Flight #3 with a 73. And Flight #4 is being controlled by Robert Johnson with a 78.

NET: Ken Slagle, Dan Gallegos and Jim Bieleniewicz are all sitting at 61 in Flight #1 - goodness gracious! Flight #2 has its own dog fight with Randall Ross, Wayne Fox and Jeff Coughran at 60 - just stop it. Flight #3 is ridiculous with Mike Marsolek sitting alone with 59 - get out! And Flight #4 is jaw-dropping with Robert Cluff and his score of 53 - I can't even!

Fifth and Final Ringers round will be April 2nd and I'm sure we will see some fireworks!
