
SGL WEEKLY TEE

DID YOU KNOW?

The golf tee has a history! In the early days of golf, golfers were allowed to tee up their ball by placing their ball within a club length of the original lie to tee it up on a higher piece of ground or grass. A golfer was also expected to wet the sand or dirt with a wet towel and create a mound which led to dirty hands and kind of a mess. The first tees were made a paper, and then cork and rubber. There were several versions in the early days but Dr. George Grant, one of the first black graduates from Harvard Dental School, invented the first wooden tee which consisted of a wooden peg attached to a rubber tube with a small cup on the top.

SGL TIP OF THE WEEK

Player Accounts: Since no cash will be accepted at events (a league policy that has been adopted), you must have money in your player account by the preceding Wednesday, prior to an event, to hold a spot and to be included on the player roster. All monies paid for events from our Pay On-Line payment page and any winnings go into each player's individual account. These monies can then be used for any future events, side games, dues, special events, swag, etc. and are deducted at your next event at check in. Individual account balances can be obtained by texting or e-mailing Dave at (480) 747-7821 or dave@saturdaygolfleague.com.

SAN MARCOS RECAP - 4.2.2022

A full field of 59 golfers made the final trip to San Marcos last Saturday for the Ringers finale. Some golfers made some major moves in an exciting finish. (Speaking of majors, do you think we'll see Tiger this week? Hope so!) But let's see how our golfers fared at San Marcos.

Ken Slagle found a rhythm and rode it all the way to the winner's circle shooting a 71 net to take Flight #1 - attaboy Ken! Michael Broudy was unconscious in his round shooting a 65 net to take Flight #2 - get outta town! Richard Powers was on his game shooting a 70 net to take Flight #3 - nice! Keven Hudspeth had flames coming out of his clubs as he shot a 71 net to grab Flight #4 - awesome! And Michael Constantine turned in a 75 net to take the Callaway flight - sweet! Congrats to all the flight winners!

There were 5 deuces and 1 eagle last Saturday compared to 12 the week prior (if that's a gauge of the difficulty meter). Deuces were had by Richard Powers, Martin Henner, Joe Pilewicz, James Parker and Robert Krass. The lone eagle was grabbed by Justin Szela. Nice job guys!

Richard Powers had an incredible day navigating the greens, needing only 26 putts to complete his round which earned him $50. Nice job Richard!

The CTP markers were claimed by Robert Krass, Richard Grambolini, Steve Hulka and Joe Pilewicz and were worth $53 each. Outstanding!

Top money winner was Robert Krass with $146 - sweet as sugar!

Congrats to all winners at San Marcos!

RINGERS UPDATE

GROSS: Justin Szela played his way into first place of Flight #1 posting a total gross score of 65 - outstanding! Flight #2 winner was Michael Broudy with a 69. Adam Dizes eked out a victory to take Flight #3 with a 72. And Robert Johnson tackled Flight #4 with a 77. Congrats to all the gross flight winners!

NET: Jim Bieleniewicz played it just right to take Flight #1 with a 59 - wow! Wayne Fox took Flight #2 with a 57 - just stop! Flight #3 winner was Richard Powers with a 58 - awesome! And Flight #4 was taken by Robert Cluff with a 53 - fainting spell!

Congratulations to all the flight winners... what a Ringers this year!
