

SGL WEEKLY TEE

DID YOU KNOW?

Golf is practically the only sport where playing the LEAST is a good thing. A low score is the goal of every golfer but the term "low score" is relative throughout the history of the game. For example, the lowest round ever recorded on the PGA Tour was a 58 shot by Jim Furyk in the 2016 Travelers Championship. Talk about low! But did you know... the winning golfer at the first Open Championship won the (then) two-day tournament with scores of 88 and 91?

SGL TIP OF THE WEEK

USGA Quiz Question:

Which is incorrect regarding improving conditions affecting a player's play?

A. In a penalty area, the player may improve the area of their intended swing in fairly taking their stance in the least intrusive way.

B - In the general area, the player may improve the lie of their ball by pressing down a replaced divot.

C. Within the teeing area, the player may break a branch of a bush growing in the teeing area to prevent it from interfering with their back swing.

VERRADO VICTORY RECAP - 5.14.2022

A full field of 44 golfers evaded road closures and detours to make it to Verrado Victory last Saturday. It was so quiet, minus the occasional bird chirp and distant earth mover, you could hear a pin drop.

Bo Montgomery was en fuego in his round posting the lowest gross score of 69 (a personal record) and with a 66 net, easily took Flight #1 - outstanding round Bo! Dave Dean wielded Excalibur and posted a 68 net to take Flight #2 - very nice! Val Lechuga decided it was his day and posted a 64 net to swipe Flight #3 - get outta town! Richard Carroll posted a 76 net and eked out a victory in Flight #4 - awesome! And congrats to newcomer Meg Plummer for taking the Callaway flight with a 75 net. Congrats to all the flight winners!

Six deuces were claimed by Richard Gramolini, Elmer Schmidt, Jim Bieleniewicz, Bradley Walker, Joe Galli and Tom Hegna. Nice job guys!

Lee Steelgrave has found his groove on the greens and needed only 27 putts to complete his round, pocketing $35. Nice job Lee!

The CTP markers were claimed by Bo Montgomery, Gary Swanner, Jim Bieleniewicz and Bradley Walker... each worth $38 a piece. Outstanding!

Top money winner was Bo Montgomery with $121 - sweet as sugar!

Congrats to all winners at Verrado Victory!
