

SGL WEEKLY TEE

DID YOU KNOW

Golf was the first sport to be played on the Moon. At the tail end of the Apollo 14 mission, Alan Shepard hit two golf balls with a custom 6-iron while on the surface of the moon. Needless to say, he did not retrieve his golf balls... but did you know, on a yearly basis around the globe, an average of 300 million golf balls are lost. Alan Shepard had a good excuse!

PALM SPRINGS

I won't try to sum up the Palm Springs trip with result details from our three days in sunny Palm Springs. Instead, here are a few pictures...

SUNRIDGE CANYON RECAP - 5.7.2022

An enthusiastic group of 39 golfers invaded Fountain Hills last Saturday. The Wicked 6 is still wicked but several golfers were wicked enough to come out on top.

Bo Montgomery posted a 76 net to take Flight #1 - sweet! Lee Steelgrave was extra wicked with a 71 net to take Flight #2 - very nice! June Vutrano navigated to a 68 net to take Flight #3 - get outta town! Martin Henner posted a 70 net to swipe Flight #4 - awesome! Virgil Solomon was your Callaway flight winner with a 73 net. Congrats to all the flight winners!

Bo Montgomery, Jared Nielson, Martin Henner and Lee Steelgrave were able to circle a 2 on their scorecard Saturday, and Lee was able to do that twice! Shaun Wilson double-circled his score on the 9th hole with an Eagle. Nice job guys!

Scott Wentz put on a clinic with his putter on Saturday, needing only 25 putts to navigate the greens - incredible!

The CTP markers were claimed by Bo Montgomery, Lee Steelgrave, George Banach, Martin Henner and Joe Pilewicz. Outstanding!

Top money winner was Lee Steelgrave with $116 - sweet as sugar!

Congrats to all winners at Sunridge Canyon!
