PHANTOM OF THE OPEN

Have you ever wanted to see a movie premier event? I mean a private, RSVP only type of showing! Well, you're in luck because we have something special for you. Tomorrow night, Tuesday, June 7th at 7:00pm for Phantom of the Open... you guessed it, it's a golf movie! Send an email to Alison Frost (info below) if you would like to attend. See you there!

My name is Alison Frost and I represent the new Sony Classics golf movie THE PHANTOM OF THE OPEN. We are holding a free movie screening of this film. Based upon a true story THE PHANTOM OF THE OPEN is the heartwarming story of Maurice Flitcroft who became a folk hero when he decided to gain entry to The British Open Golf Championship in 1976. The film stars Academy Award winner Mark Rylance as Maurice, Sally Hawkins and Rhys Ifans. Please enjoy the trailer. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MYbJWWnQHSE>

Also, the film has been recently featured in Golf Digest. A short synopsis is below. We are going to be holding a small screening of the film on June 7, 7:00 PM at Harkins Camelview at Fashion Square. I wanted to see if you would be interested in offering some seats to members of your group and team to this free movie screening. This screening will be completely RSVP.

ABOUT THE MOVIE:

THE PHANTOM OF THE OPEN tells the heartwarming true story of Maurice Flitcroft (Mark Rylance), a dreamer and unrelenting optimist. This humble crane operator from Barrow-in-Furness managed to gain entry to The British Open Golf Championship qualifying in 1976, despite never playing a round of golf before. He shot the worst round in Open history and drew the ire of the golfing elite, but became a folk hero in the process and, more importantly, showed his family the importance of pursuing your dreams.

Please let me know what you questions you have. I'm hoping some members of your organization will be interested in attending.

Thank you for your consideration.

DID YOU KNOW?

Mollydooker, goofy footed, Katy-handed, Cuddy wifter and south paw are all interesting ways to describe a person who is left handed. The most famous lefty in the PGA, however, is actually right handed. Yep, Phil Mickelson spent his youth trying to imitate his father who was legitimately left-handed and he never looked back, but "Lefty" is actually right handed.

SGL TIP OF THE WEEK

Is it legal or illegal to stand behind a player who is putting to gauge the line and/or break?

Though it might feel wrong, there is nothing in the USGA Rules to stop a fellow competitor, or opponent, standing wherever they like – even if that means they're behind you tracking the exact line of your putt.

Rule 10.2b (4), which covers the restrictions on a caddie standing behind a player, only extends to partners, team players and their bag carriers under Rules 22, 23 and 24.

Rule 1.2a, which looks at standards of player conduct, expects all players to “play in the spirit of the game” and one of the examples given is not distracting the play of another player.

So yes, you can ask a player to move out of your sight line!

SOUTHERN DUNES RECAP - 6.4.2022

Even though a few flies were biting, 36 golfers shared a little bug spray and enjoyed a beautiful day at Southern Dunes. Yep, it's that time of year again folks... time to buy a can of bug repellent!

Gregory Hileman was en fuego on Saturday, shooting a 65 net to take Flight #1 - that's impressive! Robert Owen put up an equally impressive score of 69 net and eked out a Flight #2 victory - very nice! Bryan Nelson held his own with a 72 net to take flight #3 - seriously! Lovell Robinson could... not... be... stopped... with a 60 net score to easily take Flight #4 - insert jaw drop here! Tony Petronis was your Callaway flight winner with a 70 net. Congrats to all the flight winners!

Deuces were circled by Gregor Hileman, Mark Boyce, Stephen Park and Tony Petronis. Nice job fellas!

CTPs were claimed by Anthony Carson, Nathalie Sarrieu, Amy Arnold and Richard Gramolini. I see you Nathalie!

Chris Kabat and Richard Gramolini tied with 27 putts each.

Congrats to all winners at Southern Dunes!
